

A hand-drawn map of a residential area in San Francisco, showing streets and house numbers. The map includes a yellow dot on a street labeled '2516' and a red L-shaped outline on a street labeled '2507'. Other street names visible are 'Beverly' and '2516'. The map is oriented with North at the top.

An aerial photograph of a city block. The image shows a network of streets and building footprints. The building footprints are highlighted in a light orange color, while the streets and open spaces are in white. The layout is somewhat irregular, with buildings of various shapes and sizes. Some buildings are long and narrow, while others are more square or rectangular. The streets are of varying widths and some have small, dark, irregular shapes that might be trees or other vegetation. The overall impression is of a dense urban environment.
